Christ is Risen Indeed!

He lives!

1. I serve a risen Savior
He's in the world today.
I know that He is living,
Whatever men may say.
I see His hand of mercy;
I hear His voice of cheer;
And just the time I need Him
He's always near.

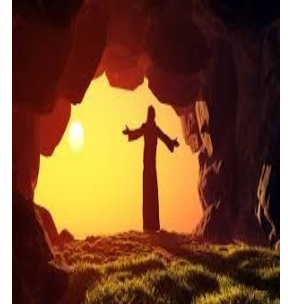

*He lives, He lives, Christ Jesus lives today!
He walks with me and talks with me along life's narrow way.*

*He lives, He lives, salvation to impart!
You ask me how I know He lives?
He lives within my heart.*

2 In all the world around me
I see His loving care,
And though my heart grows weary,
I never will despair;
I know that He is leading,
Through all the stormy blast;
The day of His appearing
Will come at last.

3 Rejoice, rejoice, O Christian,
Lift up your voice and sing
Eternal hallelujahs
To Jesus Christ the King!
The Hope of all who seek Him,
The Help of all who find,
None other is so loving,
So good and kind.

From the Finance Office

Beloved brethren, I observed that only a handful of us paid our annual dues of $100 per family for 2017. That means anyone who did not pay their dues last year will have to pay $200 dues per family this year. This has nothing to do with the $100 per family and $50 per individual for registration for our conference this July 20-22, 2018. We also will appreciate love offerings to help us prepare for the conference. Please pay up asap. You can mail your check to Break down those walls!

By international standards, the average citizen lives in abject poverty. The electorate are mostly subjugated by a government that regards them as undeserving of humane treatment. Schools and hospitals are below standards. There are no social services provided for tax payers. In effect, the rich gets richer and the poor gets poorer, in a philosophy of, "the winner-takes-it-all." The church creates its own kingdom where individuals are worshipped and parishioners act under untold hypnosis. And members like it because they want to associate with the high and mighty in a culture of servitude.

At this point, it appears no one speaks. Yet many continue to cry out. The problem is not what they say but what they do or do not do. The issue is that as long as we are speakers and hearers and not doers, we receive no results, our works are empty (James 1:22). We are like "noisy gong" and "clanging cymbals" (ICorinthians 13:1b).

It's no joke that "action speaks louder than voice" as in the old saying. In our nation and among us, actions of love are what we need to meet our needs. We need men and women that will walk through the streets of our nation with power and strength who will not be afraid to visit the sick, pray for widows, give to the poor, join the downtrodden in their call for justice. Not from grand style vehicles and towers but like Jesus, who will feel what they feel and walk where they walk. We need ministers who will selflessly work with us to impact the lives of the next generation of Nigerians or else we have no country to return to. Nevertheless, we hold the power to impact the land of our birth!

Brethren, we need to come together, unite in love and use our gifts and talents to empower Christians and all Nigerians. The jobless are fast taking over the streets and the palaces of our land. We see it already. Our legislators are mostly the mediocre of the society. So, well-rounded education is a thing of the past. Even the private and mission schools are money-making machines for a select few who can afford it for, sometimes undeserving children. So, liberal art education has been relegated to the background. Many graduates are so half-baked that it is obvious they got no education at all. They parade degrees and certificates they cannot defend. And sit in high positions in the citadels of learning fermenting trouble and calling for higher pay without seeking ways to improve education. They make society more caustic than ever before. I have a graduate candidate, a Christian who is being delayed from completing his Masters degree because they need to contribute and pay the faculty before their defense is fixed. Imagine doing that in the US. These are some of the pressures Christian students have to undergo, so they need support to overcome so many obstacles that were not there when you and I went to school.

Like Mary, the sister of Martha, we need to learn at the feet of Jesus. We need the fundamental teaching of the scriptures that will strengthen our foundations and transform the lives of our church members. The quick fix of training ministers who have not surrendered to the Lord needs to stop. Perhaps, we need to break down the walls of denominationalism, so that society will once again be affected by the fire of revival.

We are in need. Yes, we need grounded theological and pastoral training for our pastors and missionaries. You and I must focus on the vision, leaving a legacy of righteousness for the next generation. Brethren, let's arise and keep building. Let's break down the barriers of denominational and "seek the kingdom of God and His righteousness" (Matthew 6:33). Brethren, find your place in this new move of God!

Happy Resurrection morning!
